SACRAMENTO COUNTY RESIDENT RECOGNIZED FOR HER VOLUNTEER WORK

Volunteer Dedicated to Helping Protect the Community

SACRAMENTO - The Governor's Office on Service and Volunteerism (GO SERV) Spotlights Dena Law, a member of Sacramento County's Volunteers In Partnership with the Sheriff (VIPS) program. Since 1999, Ms. Law has been an active member of VIPS, providing over 2000 hours of volunteer service.

When Sheriff Blanas decided to have volunteers on patrol, Dena Law joined the first training academy. Law also volunteers for the Community Service Reserve Corps (CSRC) and the Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) in Sacramento County. She has a strong commitment to serve her community.

Ms. Law has continued to hone her law enforcement skills by participating in local VIPS training and the civilian Emergency Vehicle Operations Course (EVOC) training. For the last four years Law has participated in the California Peace Officers Association (CPOA) volunteer training and the last five years she has been involved in the Law Enforcement Volunteers of California (LEVOC) training. Ms. Law also decided to become a mentor for other volunteers to support them in serving their communities.

"Dena is a shining example of law enforcement volunteers," Deputy Director of GO SERV, David Muraki said. "For the past five years she has volunteered and been trained to help her community in times of emergencies and disasters."

The weekly GO SERV Spotlight recognizes people and programs making a difference in their communities through service and volunteerism.
